

Merry-Go-Round Race

Tiger, Horse, Swan, Frog, and Panda all want to be the new animal on the merry-go-round. Who will it be? Play to find out who crosses the finish line first to become the next animal on the merry-go-round. This is a game for up to five people.

Goal: Add to find out which animal will cross the finish line first.

You will need:

- Five game pieces
- Two dice
- Game board

What to do:

- Each player chooses one animal. Place a marker on the animal.
- Decide who will go first. Roll two dice and add them together. Move the marker forward that many spaces. Then pass the dice to the next player.
- Taking turns, each player will roll the dice, add them together, and move their marker.
- The game is over when one of the animals moves across the finish line.
